About Liaison

Liaison saves the public sector real money in the key areas of finance and workforce management. We're passionate about what we do because we help lots of organisations to improve the way they spend their money – notably the NHS. Founded 30 years ago, we've come a long way since then. Today the company boasts a workforce of more than 250 people with a headquarters located in the historic city of Worcester, along with many remote workers across the length and breadth of the UK.

The team

The team is currently made up of 6 individuals including the Commercial Director, with significant growth of the sales team imminent. Each Account Director or Account Manager look after their own geographical area.

The environment is positive, progressive, ambitious, agile, and a fast-paced working environment where hard work and outcomes are recognised and rewarded. You will be able to rely upon support from not only the senior members of the immediate team, but also the business development team.

Main responsibilities

The Senior Account Manager role includes account management of a geographical set of key accounts. Proactively creating and maintaining senior level relationships. Being the senior level contact with the overview of the complete service offering being delivered into accounts. The role includes overseeing the clients in the pre and post implementation of workforce solutions and identifying new opportunities for workforce solutions within the client base and wider geography.

National strategic initiatives for the Account Director will be set each year. With the NHS going through considerable change, this role will help the company navigate the changing contacts and relationships, helping to maintain customers as they merge with other organisations and the NHS groups develop.

You will have involvement in the complete service delivery for all Liaisons service portfolio. From the beginning at the implementation meeting with the operations team, helping to ensure the customer supplies the information in a timely fashion, identifying blocks and solving issues should they arise.

In addition to closely monitoring the delivery, the Account Director will also actively look to develop and identify new opportunities within clients and their region. This will involve working closely with product development, and sales and marketing teams. It will also require the development of a deep understanding of the customer.
